Solomon Dwiggin & Freer, Ltd. Welcomes
Associate Justin W. Wilson

LAS VEGAS – (May 24, 2018) – Solomon Dwiggin & Freer, Ltd., a leading Nevada law firm primarily practicing in trust and estate law, announced today that Justin W. Wilson has joined the firm as an associate attorney. Wilson will primarily focus on tax, estate and business planning, and asset protection. He has previous experience in assisting clients with areas of tax and estate planning.

“We place a high priority on recruiting the most talented and hard-working attorneys and we are pleased to welcome Justin to our firm,” said Dana A. Dwiggin, firm managing partner. “He will be an asset to our team as we expand our trust and estate clientele and continue to serve clients in Nevada.”

Before joining Solomon Dwiggin & Freer, Ltd., Wilson held the role of deputized law clerk at the Clark County District Attorney’s Office where he assisted with court hearings, witness interviews and appellate briefs.

Wilson received his Juris Doctorate degree from Syracuse University College of Law and completed a co-curricular program in estate planning. During law school, he was the Managing Editor for the Syracuse Law & Civic Engagement Forum Journal, President of the Syracuse University College of Law chapter of the Federalist Society, and a member of the Syracuse University College of Law National Trial Competition team. He was also a student attorney for the University’s Elder & Health Law Clinic and Low-Income Taxpayer Clinic. Wilson was a 2017 Robert H. Miller Trial Advocacy Award winner and a 2016 39th Annual Lionel O. Grossman Trial Competition champion.

Prior to attending law school at Syracuse University, Wilson studied law at Oklahoma City University for a short time, where he was a member of the American Association for Justice Trial team and Phi Delta Phi legal honor society, and a student representative for the Oklahoma City University chapter of the Federalist Society. He was also a legal intern for the firm Gungoll, Jackson, Box & Devoll, P.C.

Wilson is a Kansas native and received his undergraduate and graduate degree from Wichita State University.

He is actively involved in the community as a member of the American Bar Association, State Bar of Nevada, and Clark County Bar Association. Wilson was a 2016 tax preparer for the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program and a volunteer for the Muscular Dystrophy Association 5K charity run/walk.
