

Contact Information:

Solomon Dwiggin Freer & Steadman
Madisyn Dwiggin
(702) 343-0030
Mdwiggins@sdfnlaw.com

Release Date:

January 1, 2024

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Solomon Dwiggin Freer & Steadman, Ltd. Announces Craig Friedel as Firm's Newest Partner

Solomon Dwiggin Freer & Steadman, Ltd. is proud to announce Craig Friedel as the firm's newest partner.

Friedel has been with Solomon Dwiggin Freer & Steadman since 2015 and has succeeded in his work in Trust and Estate Litigation, Trust and Estate Administration, and Business & Commercial Litigation.

As an associate attorney Friedel believes he contributed to the success of the firm by aligning his work with the firm values and goals, providing a commitment to excellence, integrity, teamwork, dedication, and client service. He also believes he contributed to the success of the firm by being dependable, hard-working, prepared, knowledgeable and a pro-active associate that has consistently been assigned to some of the firm's largest matters.

Friedel said: "As I reflect on the transition from being an employee to a partner, I see it as natural progression that comes with increased responsibility, leadership, and a deeper commitment to the success of SDFS. I am most excited about helping to cultivate the next generation of legal professionals within our firm by working with our current and future associates."

Friedel is excited to work collaboratively with his fellow partners to navigate challenges, seize opportunities, and ensure that our firm remains at the forefront of legal excellence.

"We are delighted to have Craig become a partner with the firm. Craig has proven to be an exceptional trust & estate litigation attorney and has a bright future ahead of him," said Alex LeVeque, the firm's Managing Partner.