

Contact Information:

Solomon Dwiggin Freer & Steadman
Madisyn Dwiggin
(702) 343-0030
Mdwiggins@sdfnlaw.com

SOLOMON | DWIGGIN
FREER | STEADMAN <sup>LTD</sup>
TRUST AND ESTATE ATTORNEYS

Release Date:

April 22, 2025

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Solomon Dwiggin Freer & Steadman, Ltd. Announces Ross Evans as Firm's Newest Partner

Solomon Dwiggin Freer & Steadman, Ltd. is proud to announce Ross Evans as the firm's newest partner.

Ross Evans has been with Solomon Dwiggin Freer & Steadman since 2009 and has excelled in his work in Trust and Estate Litigation, Adult and Minor Guardianship, and Business and Commercial Litigation.

As an associate attorney, Mr. Evans observed the firm's growth and adaptability firsthand, along with its unwavering commitment to providing exceptional legal services and focusing on client satisfaction and success.

Now, as a newly named partner, Mr. Evans hopes to foster a supportive, collaborative, and empowering environment.

Mr. Evans stated his goal is: "Ultimately, my goal is to cultivate a team where each member feels valued, motivated, and equipped to reach their full potential, contributing to both their individual success and the overall achievements of SDFS."

Ross Evans is excited to work collaboratively with his fellow partners and is eager to embrace his added responsibilities that come with the role. Additionally, he hopes to take on more direct roles in challenging cases while further growing his experience and broaden his practice areas.

"We are delighted to have Ross become a partner with the firm. Ross has proven to be exceptional in the areas of guardianship law and fiduciary litigation and has a bright future ahead of him," said Alex LeVeque, the firm's Managing Partner.